Michael L. Brown named Estate Planner of the Year 2008

BOSTON: April 8, 2008- The Boston Estate Planning Council (BEPC) is pleased to announce that it has nominated Michael L. Brown, J.D., CPA to be the recipient of the prestigious Estate Planner of the Year award. Each year in May, BEPC bestows this title on an individual from within the professional estate planning community in recognition of excellence and singular achievement in the field of estate planning.

Mr. Brown, who has been a member of BEPC since 1993, is a Managing Director of the Boston accounting firm UHY Advisors N.E., LLC and a Partner with UHY LLP. With more than 30 years experience as an attorney and CPA, he now dedicates the bulk of his practice to tax and financial planning for high-net-worth individuals. Mr. Brown is a regular speaker to groups on business and personal financial planning and tax strategies and is a published author on these and related topics as well. He serves on numerous boards, including the Massachusetts Society of CPAs (President-elect); BEPC (2000-2007); and the Small Business Association of New England. Mr. Brown resides with his wife, Cathy, and their family in Manchester by-the-Sea, MA.

Mr. Brown will be honored formally at the Estate Planner of the Year Dinner which will take place on Thursday, May 29, 2008 at the Intercontinental Hotel, Boston.

The Boston Estate Planning Council is a multi-disciplinary professional association organized to provide educational programs and networking opportunities for estate planning professionals in the community. Established in 1930, the Council's membership is comprised of attorneys, accountants, bank trust officers, life insurance representatives and financial advisors. The Boston Estate Planning Council is the oldest and one of the largest associations of its kind in the country, with more than 600 current members.
